

Dear Parents,

The St. Joseph School Drama Club is beginning a new season. Our students have worked hard over the years and have learned many skills that will give them confidence in the years to come.

The Drama Club will gather on Tuesdays after school from 2:45 to 5:00.

We welcome your child to join us as we explore the stage; learn the discipline of acting and speaking, using props and more.

Attached is a calendar of our rehearsals+, the rules and expectations for being a member of the Drama Club, and a permission slip.

Please return the permission slip as soon as possible. Drama Club begins on Tuesday, October 20th.

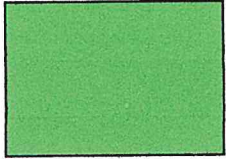

Drama Club Calendar 2026-2027

The following is expected of me as a cast member for the drama production at St. Joseph's School:

- ▲ The permission slip must be handed in to the instructors if I wish to be a Drama Club member.
- ▲ To attend all scheduled rehearsals unless the director has been notified in writing with a valid excuse. Three unexcused absences will be grounds for removal from the show.
- ▲ To attend all scheduled performances, and all rehearsals during Tech Week.
- ▲ To help break down and clean up the set after each rehearsal and the last performance. No one is dismissed until everything is cleaned up. Students will stay with Drama group until dismissed. Students will not leave the area without checking in with the instructors.
- ▲ To maintain grades as deemed by the school.
- ▲ To follow school attendance policies. (You may not attend rehearsal if you are absent from school).
- ▲ To wear modest, comfortable clothing that you can move in. No short shorts or V-neck shirts/blouses. You are not required to change for rehearsals after school, but sometimes skirts or dresses/jumpers can be a problem.
- ▲ To be responsible for returning all costume pieces and props to their proper places. No one is dismissed until everything is cleaned up.
- ▲ To bring a script and a pencil to all rehearsals even if you are backstage or think you have memorized your part. Changes can and will be made to the script at any time. Three times without your script means you may be asked to leave the play.
- ▲ To come prepared to work.
- ▲ To have fun, make new friends, and strengthen existing friendships, as we create a production we can be proud of, using the talents and gifts God has given us!

RULES AND EXPECTATIONS

Please keep this page for reference.

1. Be punctual to all rehearsals
2. Eat your snack between 2:45 and 3:00 as rehearsals begin promptly at 3:00 pm and end at 5:00 pm
3. This is a year long commitment, therefore we need everyone to attend every rehearsal.
4. The rehearsals are not for those who only wish to socialize, but for those who are serious about putting on great plays.
5. If you are disrespectful or disruptive to our group, you will be asked to go to the Aftercare program until your parent has picked you up. You will be asked not to return if this happens.
6. Auditions: Students are not guaranteed a certain part just because they say they want it. They must audition and show us how much they want the part by doing a great job. If you end up with a part you don't like...tell us now, not after we have been rehearsing. You are not guaranteed to get a perfect part, but remember that all parts are important to the production. All parts need to be assigned and learned from the beginning so that we can have a fantastic play. Parts and action will be learned by Christmas. Costumes and props are to be gathered and put together ASAP. Do not handle another person's costumes and props unless told to. Any missing pieces need to be accounted for.
7. If you are part of the Back Stage Crew, please know that you are just as important as the on stage crew, because you are the ones who are in charge of all the props, costumes, back drops, opening and closing the curtains, setting the stage when the curtains are closed, sound and lights.
8. If you are unable to attend a rehearsal due to a prior commitment (doctor's appointment that was scheduled before Drama schedule was announced), please let me know as soon as possible as this affects the entire group.
9. If you are out sick or went home early, please have your parent email or leave a message with the office. Please do not ask another student to tell us. We need time to place an understudy in your part and be sure they know that part.
10. Constructive ideas are always welcomed so please bring them to the rehearsals!
11. Drama is a fun after school activity. Fun does not mean running around playing with toys, props, etc. We do need to be serious. The quality of the play is dependent on your commitment and it affects everyone involved.
12. For our final dress rehearsal, we hope to be performing for the school towards the end of the day. On the day of our production, everyone is expected to stay after school as we will rehearse to work out any kinks that occurred during the school performance, we will have a small party and then set up for the performance for our guests later that night.
